

Branch Alliance
for Educator Diversity

Dr. Valeisha Ellis

Dr. Valeisha Ellis, assistant professor at Spelman College. Prior to becoming a professor, she was a K-5 Special Educator and District Reading Specialist. She has experience in curriculum and instruction, reading, special education and STEM teacher education. Dr. Ellis' research interests include Social and Emotional Learning, Mindfulness Pedagogy, integrating science and reading instruction, Minority Teacher Preparation, effective models of establishing and maintaining P-12 school and community partnerships, effective pre-service field and clinical models for teacher education, and multidisciplinary education research.

— # # # —