Rosemary Leal

Rosemary Leal is the Principal at Olmito Elementary School at Los Fresnos Consolidated Independent School District in South Texas. Prior to becoming a principal, a role she has held for the past 11 years, she served as a middle school teacher and a middle school administrator. She has been partnering with the University of Texas Rio Grande Valley STEP-UP program for the past four years. The STEP-UP program is a collaborative initiative consisting of a year-long field-embedded professional education model for teacher candidates. She has also participated in the Raise Your Hand Texas initiative and the Harvard Leadership Program.
