

Branch Alliance for Educator Diversity

	Branch Alliance for Educator Diversity (BranchED) Professional Development Associate
Organizational Description	More than half of American public-school students are children of color, and only 18% of their teachers are from these same racial and ethnic groups. The Branch Alliance for Educator Diversity (BranchED) was founded in 2017 to support Minority Serving Institutions (HBCUs, HSIs, tribal colleges, and others) to maximize programming and drive innovation in preparing highly-effective educators who reflect and champion the diversity of our nation’s school children. These 253 Minority Serving Institutions comprise 13% of education providers in the United States, but prepare 51% of all Hispanic students earning bachelor’s degrees in education, 51% of Native Hawaiian and Pacific Islander teacher candidates, 38% of African American teacher candidates, and 35% of bachelor’s degrees in education for Native Americans and Asian Americans. BranchED is the first and only non-profit organization in the nation that is dedicated to strengthening and growing educator preparation at MSIs, with the larger goals of both diversifying the teaching profession and intentionally addressing critical issues of educational equity for all students. BranchED has three goals that guide its work: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Empower: working together to strengthen and grow MSI educator preparation programs by providing capacity building support that enhances MSI capabilities • Connect: strengthening relationships among MSIs by building partnerships to spur collaboration and innovation • Advance: amplifying a collective voice and advocating for shared interests by promoting awareness of educator diversity and championing MSIs
Position Objective	The Professional Development Associate (PDO) works collaboratively with BranchED team members to design professional development and design and curate resources, tools, and templates on various topics related to BranchED’s quality framework. Professional development sessions are provided in a variety of formats including face-to-face, on-site, and virtually using synchronous and/or asynchronous methods. Instruction is specifically tailored to the strengths and needs of the participants who include faculty and administrators. This may range from providing support on implementing BranchED’s diagnostic tools to enhancing faculty pedagogical practices. The PDO also works with the BranchED team members to research best practices and develop information briefs to inform our core community.
