Juliana Cotto

Juliana Cotto is a Policy Counsel for the Youth & Education Privacy team at the Future of Privacy Forum. Juliana leads the development of K-12 student privacy resources and training for educators, assists in FPF's research initiatives, and leads a number of partnerships. Juliana's work covers a range of student privacy topics, including best practices, privacy implications of a virtual learning environment, and important privacy considerations for marginalized student populations. Previous to pursuing a career in policy, Juliana was an elementary school teacher for three years during which she taught for both Chicago Public Schools and Saint Louis Public Schools. She holds a Master of Science in Public Policy & Management degree from Carnegie Mellon University Heinz College and a Master's degree in Education from the University of Missouri Saint Louis.
